PROGRESSIVES IN ALL PARTIES WIN SWEEPING VICTORIES IN ELECTION

TAFT REPUDIATED BY COX DEFEAT IN CINCINNATI

Democratic Victory in the President's Home City Taken as Significant by Politicians

FOSS MAJORITY IS SMALLER

Vote in Massachusetts Indicates People's Protest on the Tariff Question

MACHINE DEFEATS WILSON

Power of Organization in New Jersey Handicaps "Rule of People" Lead by Governor

Uprising Against "Bosses" Both Roger Sullivan and Loring were beaten in Chicago. The Penrose-Vare-McNichol machine was smashed in Philadelphia. The George B. Cox machine, supported by President Taft, lost to its bitterest opponent in Cincinnati. Senators Lodge and Crane were defeated in Massachusetts. "Bosses" Murphy, Cassidy and McCooey, Greater New York, either were beaten or won by narrow margins as greatly to reduce their power. George W. Aldrich, Rochester, "boss," won his fight. Socialists showed wonderful gains all through the country. They elected a mayor in Schenectady, N. Y., and in six Ohio cities. They sent a member to the general assembly of New York from Schenectady. In Kansas and New Mexico they made great strides. In Michigan and Minnesota they showed unexpected strength. In Mississippi they claim to have elected a lieutenant governor. Governor Woodrow Wilson was ignored by New Jersey voters, who elected a republican legislature. Governor Eugene N. Foss, democrat, was re-elected in Massachusetts, though republican leaders told the voters such an action would be a slap at President Taft. Kentucky came back into the democratic fold and Congressman Ollie James will go to the United States senate. Republicans carried Maryland, defeating Arthur Pue Gorman, Jr., for governor. Newton Baker, Tom L. Johnson's associate, won in Cleveland. Brand Whitlock will enter upon a fourth term as mayor of Toledo. The new state, New Mexico, lined up in the democratic column by a narrow margin.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Progressives in all parties saw victory today in the election results. The only progressive setback was in New Jersey, where a republican legislature was elected in the face of Governor Woodrow Wilson's vigorous personal campaign. In the municipal elections, progressives claimed strong grounds for gratification. The crushing blow delivered to "Boss" Cox in Cincinnati; the election of Newton D. Baker, a "Tom L. Johnson man," to be mayor of Cleveland; the re-election of Brand Whitlock in Toledo; the victory of Rudolph Blankenburg over the Penrose machine in Philadelphia; the loss of the New York assembly by Tammany, and the result in Kentucky, where a democratic landslide will put Representative Ollie James in the United States senate, with the great socialist gains and various other features in the returns, all were hailed by progressives regardless of parties as victories for the "rule of people."

Taft is Repudiated Though optimists in all branches of the party found much basis for gratification the democratic national returns seemed most jubilant. They saw much significance in the heavy democratic vote in Ohio and especially the democratic victory in President Taft's home city, Cincinnati. They hailed the election of Foss in Massachusetts as a repudiation of republican tariff principles and conceded that the result there was based

FOSS VICTORY IS A TELLING BLOW TO "BOSS RULE"

General Trend Toward Progressive Policies Seen in Election in Massachusetts

REBUKE IS GIVEN TO TAFT

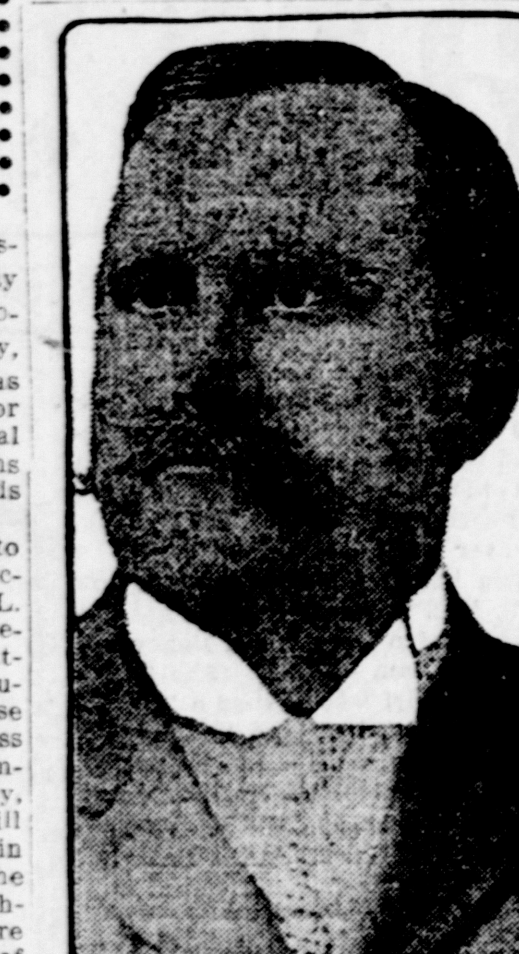

Speakers, Said Republican Defeat Would Mean a Blow to President's Standing

PROGRESSIVES ARE SATISFIED

Initiative, Referendum and Recall Are Sure to Be Adopted in Ohio

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 8.—A general trend toward progressive policies and the vote of anti-machine republicans gave Governor Eugene N. Foss a second term at the state house and defeated Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Frothingham, republican candidate for that office, according to assertions made here today by democrats and many republicans. In the re-election of Governor Foss is seen a telling blow to the republican machine, of which United States Senator Lodge is called the mentor. It is even hinted here today in republican circles that the Foss victory, although his plurality of 35,000 of 1910 was cut down this year to 8,331, may mean the retirement of United States Senator W. Murray Crane at the expiration of his term in 1913. Since republican leaders warned from the stump that the return of Foss would mean defeat for President Taft and had made the fight almost wholly on the tariff issue and the support of Taft, much weight is given to declarations of democrats today that the election is a rebuke delivered to a republican president by Massachusetts, a "standpat" republican state. Many republicans who voted for Frothingham said today that yesterday's result means the downfall of Senator P. C. Lodge. It was Senator Crane who first started the prophesy that a Foss victory would mean death to New England industries.

Progressive Laws Assured CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Newton D. Baker, former lieutenant of the late Tom L. Johnson, was elected mayor of Cleveland yesterday by the largest plurality a candidate ever received, returns today indicate. The $2,000,000 bond issue for a municipal lighting plant also carried. Returns received in Columbus indicate thirty-five counties show fifty-one progressive delegates elected to the constitutional convention, assuring this faction a majority, and making it certain the initiative, referendum and recall will be written into the new Ohio constitution. SUPERVISORS FROM COUNTRY QUIT SESSION

Refuse to Act with the City Members of Tax Equalization Committee

KINDLEY CROWD MEETING

Municipality Has Majority and Report Must Be Accepted, is the Claim

KEPPEL LEADS OPPOSITION

And Says Appeal Will Result if Report Is Unfair to the Country District

Chairman of the County Board R. W. Davis was notified of the split in the equalization committee and hurried to La Crosse on the noon train from Bangor. Conferences were held with the Keppel and Kindley factions but at 3:30 no agreement had been reached.

The expected row over the distribution of taxes between the city and county came to a head this morning when Supervisors Val S. Keppel, Adolph Nettleman and W. D. Sandman, representing the rural district, withdrew from the meeting of the equalization board and declined to again confer with the city members. John Kindley, leader of the city supervisors, with A. C. Kaylor, T. B. Lawrence and Joseph Gelfer representing the city, remained in session and announced that they would complete their report to the county board which must be taken as a majority report because of the fact that the four city members constitute a quorum.

Valentine Keppel is leading the country members, which are supporting the report of assessments as submitted by Supervisor of Assessments J. E. Keizer some time ago, and announce that they will recommend the adoption of Keizer's report to the board.

Keppel charges that Kindley, immediately after the publication of Keizer's report, rendered an opinion that the report was not fair or accurate and claims that this is the reason for the failure of the equalization committee to agree.

Unfair to Country "We can reach no agreement without doing the country district an injustice," was Keppel's declaration this morning. "I have offered to recommend either Keizer's or the state's report but Kindley is obdurate and refuses to accept either."

Supervisor Kindley, who is leading the fight for lower taxes in the city, announced, after the withdrawal of the country members this morning, that he was willing to accept the Keppel report providing there was a reduction of 2 per cent made on real estate. He maintains that the state's report is fully that much lower than Keizer's on city real estate. Kindley also said he favored the adoption of the state report inasmuch as it would be taken as a standard in case an appeal is taken. An appeal will be taken, asserts Keppel, if the report accepted by the county board imposes any hardship on the country district.

GROCERS AND MERCHANTS FIGHT TO BOOM BUSINESS AND CUT COST OF LIVING

REBELS SURROUND CHINESE CAPITAL

Question Only of Hours Before Pekin Is in the Hands of the Revolutionists

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—Yuan Shi Kai has stopped trying to make terms between the emperor and the rebels. He is on his way today to Pekin, reports from Hankow say. It is suspected that Yuan will proclaim himself dictator following arrival at the capital. He is understood to believe that by no other means can order be restored in China. The rebels regard him as a grave danger to the cause and he is in danger from them as well as from the Manchus. Before leaving for Pekin, Yuan sent a message to the court saying peace was an impossibility until the reforms promised in the recent imperial edict were actually effected—that merely promising them was insufficient. It is confirmed that a Manchur plot has been discovered in Pekin for a general massacre when the overthrow of the throne becomes an absolute certainty. The Chinese are preparing to resist it and instead of being a mere slaughter, the first sign of a Manchur outbreak will start a desperate battle. Revolutionists are converging upon the capital from every direction and its fall is considered a question only of days and perhaps of hours. Reports are current here that the imperial palace is on fire and that the emperor has already fled.

M'NAMARAS MAY BE TRIED IN INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Any indictments which may result from the federal government's investigation into the dynamite cases involving John J. and James B. McNamara will not be made public until the cases against the two brothers are disposed of, according to United States District Attorney C. W. Miller here today. If the Los Angeles trials should result in the acquittal of the McNamaras, it is said to be planned to bring the brothers here to face a federal trial in case indictments are returned charging criminal violation of the United States laws regarding the transportation of explosives. In case convictions should result in the Los Angeles trials, it is believed that any indictments which may result from the federal investigation will be dropped.

FILTRATION EXPERT RAPS WELL SYSTEM

In substantiation of the claim that the well system is not the most advisable as a water supply for La Crosse, Walter S. Woods, engineer for the La Crosse Water Power company, member of the city health board and formerly city engineer, is exhibiting a letter from H. B. Leopold, an authority on filtration and author of "Filtration of Water in Its Relation to the Health and Prosperity of a Municipality." Leopold raps well water hard, claiming it is of no value for industrial purposes.

BEATTIE HAS CELL IN MURDERERS' ROW

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., wife murderer, was removed from the city jail this morning to the Virginia penitentiary, where he will expiate his crime in the electric chair on Nov. 24, unless Governor Mann interposes or the state court of appeals grants him a new trial. Few persons if any other than the officials of the two institutions, were aware of the transfer. Though there are eleven cells in this chamber, he is the only occupant.

SNOW DAMAGES WHEAT

CALGARY, Alta., Nov. 8.—The snowstorm from the north which struck Calgary last night and continued today will have a damaging effect upon the wheat crop of the province. Grain men say the fall was general and quite heavy. A considerable quantity of wheat and oats is in the stack and this grain will deteriorate. Threshing operators will be delayed for a week or ten days. The fact that the grain is shelling is also making the farmers gloomy.

LA CROSSE DEATH RATE IS VERY LOW

Preliminary Statement of Vital Statistics Shows a Rate of 14.3 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A preliminary statement of vital statistics relative to nine cities in the census bureau's death registration area of the year 1910 was issued today by Census Director Durand. It was prepared under the supervision of Dr. Cressy L. Wilbur, chief statistician for vital statistics in the census bureau. The figures are subject to such revision as may be necessary after further examination of the original transcripts, although it is not believed that there will be any material corrections of the amounts and rates stated herein.

The death rates per 1,000 population are based upon the estimated mid-year population for 1910. Stillbirths are excluded from the figures. In Montgomery, Alabama in 1910 there were 1,008 deaths and a death rate of 26.4; in Battle Creek, Mich., 423 deaths and a rate of 16.7; in Lincoln, Neb., 486 deaths, 11.0 rate; Dayton, Ohio, 1,724 deaths, 14.8 rate; Williamsport, Penn., 148 deaths, 15.3 rate; Galveston, Texas, 600 deaths, 16.2 rate; Danville, Va., 388 deaths, 20.4 rate; Lynchburg, Va., 473 deaths, 16.0 rate, and La Crosse, Wis., 435 deaths, 14.3 rate. Of the nine cities, Montgomery shows the highest rate, it being six more per 1,000 population than that of Danville, the city exhibiting the next highest rate. Lincoln's rate was the lowest of all, being less than one-half those of Montgomery and Danville. La Crosse and Dayton were the next lowest. The estimated population figures and further details will be found in the following table:

CITY.	Est. mid-Deaths, 1910	Rate per 1,000 pop.
Montgomery	38,195	1,008 26.4
Battle Creek	25,376	423 16.7
Lincoln	44,053	486 11.0
Dayton	116,874	1,724 14.8
Williamsport	31,925	490 15.3
Galveston	36,981	600 16.2
Danville	19,051	388 20.4
Lynchburg	29,581	473 16.0
La Crosse	30,474	435 14.3

LORIMER PROBE NEAR END

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Agreement was reached by counsel on both sides before the senatorial Lorimer investigating committee today to terminate the present series of hearings in this city on Nov. 24, and to reassemble again in Washington on Dec. 5. The date set for adjournment is only tentative, and the committee hopes to conclude hearings before that time.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Rain and warmer tonight; Thursday rain or snow and colder. For Wisconsin: Rain tonight and Thursday; warmer southwest portion tonight; colder Thursday. For Iowa: Rain tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight; colder west portion Thursday.

Weather Notes This morning's reports show two storms of equal strength located within the range of observations, one moving off the north Atlantic coast and the other approaching from Washington, while a third depression is central off the mouth of the Mississippi river. The pressure is moderately high from the upper lakes to the middle Atlantic coast and another high is developing in Alberta. The temperature has fallen generally from the Mississippi river to the Atlantic coast, along the Canadian border and in the extreme northwest and risen in the Missouri valley. Rain has fallen in the southern states, rain or snow in the lake region and rain and snow in the north Pacific states and Canadian northwest.

The western low will likely cause rain and higher temperature in this section tonight followed by rain or snow and colder Thursday or Thursday night.

FREE BRIDGE AND PUBLIC MARKETS

Two Great Meetings Prepare Important Issues for a City Referendum in Spring

A free bridge. A modern public market for South La Crosse. A modern public market for North La Crosse. A city buyer to bid the top market price on all produce brought to the city by farmers.

These are the things the La Crosse Retail Merchants association and the La Crosse Retail Grocers association, co-operating with the Trades and Labor council and the socialists, will ask the city council to submit to a referendum in April.

To revive La Crosse as the market place for the surrounding country.

To reduce the cost of living by giving citizens an open market in which they can buy vegetables, meats and all farm produce direct from the farmer.

To give the farmer a place in which he can sell direct to the consumer as well as to the grocer, and to centralize the market facilities for farmer, merchant, grocer and citizen.

To provide the farmer a rest house for himself and his family, and warm stalls for his horses while he is in the city.

These are the purposes of the movement begun by the merchants and the grocers by two largely attended and enthusiastic meetings held yesterday.

The merchants met at 10:00 a. m. and passed a resolution providing that the proposal for a referendum on the issues, be presented to the city council in February. At this meeting John C. Toeller, Joseph Felber and Harry Taggart were named as a committee to co-operate with a committee to be named by the grocers for pushing the program.

The above committee of the merchants, and many leading jobbers, attended the meeting of the grocers in the evening. The grocers, whose association enjoys the distinction of having inaugurated the free bridge movement by passing the original resolutions favoring it, displayed deep interest in the proceedings. A committee consisting of J. B. Murray, A. J. Beutler and August Anderson were named to work with the merchants, and the campaign will begin at once.

To Make Living Cheaper At this meeting three additional steps were taken by the grocers looking to more reasonable cost of living. They were as follows:

STEAMBOAT WAR NOT CALLED OFF

Following the announcement made yesterday in papers up and down the river that the Streckfus line had abandoned its attempt to invade the territory of the lower Mississippi after threats of a counter-invasion of the upper river by the Lee line of steamers now plying in the St. Louis to New Orleans line, comes a dispatch from the headquarters of the Streckfus line at Rock Island, which quotes Captain John Streckfus, president of the line, as denying the report.

LA CROSSE GIRL WINS LAND TRACT

According to information received in the city today, Mrs. Louise Palmer, formerly Miss Schaller, 1311 South Fourth street, was successful in the land lottery in South Dakota, as a result of which she drew some fine ground on section 419, located above the Mitchell National bank.

Mrs. Palmer of Mitchell, S. D., entered the Rosebud land lottery and the property which she secured is said to be good. She will now reside on the property.

SINGLE CHARGE STARTS THE POT BOILING HOTLY

Sporting House Keepers Called on the Mat and Asked About "Protection"

A PRIVATE PROBE WAS ON

Chief Got "Tip" on "Job" and Is Now Getting After the People Who May Know

I am investigating gossip that graft has been practiced in the police department. It is largely rumor, and out of fairness to my force I will not credit it in absence of positive evidence. I don't propose to question the honesty of my men on mere rumor, but I feel it is my duty to investigate rumors that, if unanswered, will hurt the department.—Statement of John Webber, chief of police.

At 3:30 this afternoon Chief Webber admitted he was engaged in probing charges to the effect that graft is being practiced in the department, and in the above statement declared his purpose to either expose the guilty or silence gossip.

The long expected "shake-up" in the police department, with Chief John Webber the shaker instead of the shakee, may result from a vigorous investigation of charges of bribery and corruption which the chief began yesterday.

Those who have been investigating the subject declare that there is absolutely no evidence implicating Chief Webber in the alleged grafting, but on the other hand the facts warrant his absolute vindication and his personal integrity is sure to remain unimpaired by the inquiry.

The charge is made that certain members of the force have been "holding up" proprietors of sporting houses and assignation houses, making them pay for "protection."

The investigation of these charges has shifted suddenly from the hands of private citizens to those of the chief, as a result of a "tip" perhaps inadvertently given Webber.

Acting upon this information, Chief Webber began yesterday a vigorous examination of the keepers of various resorts, taking copious notes and going straight to the question of whether bribery exists in the department.

This action on the part of the chief was accompanied by an atmosphere of suppressed excitement about police headquarters, and during the day the "goings on" were "tipped off" to members of the police commission.

It is said the charges are aimed at prominent police officials, and that if a hearing is ordered a number of witnesses are prepared to swear that the "big mitt" has been busy in La Crosse for some time, and that they have been obliged to "dig" at frequent intervals in order to secure immunity from arrest. It is also charged that arrests have followed the refusal of certain individuals to "come across."

Just what is the nature of the evidence secured by the chief in his probing yesterday cannot be learned, as the persons interviewed were warned that should they disclose anything they would suffer reprisals.

Five women, all "resorters" were on the carpet in the chief's office yesterday. They were Sadie Stone, Mrs. Bennett, Hattie Bowker, Annie Hartley and Rose Vermont. The interview with the Vermont woman was the longest, lasting considerably over an hour.

MAKES COLDS OR GRIPPE VANISH

Surely breaks the most severe cold and ends Grippe misery in just a few hours

You can surely end Grippe and break up the most severe cold either in head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, by taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, without interference with your usual duties and with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

STRAW VOTE IS STRONG FOR BOB

Fourth District of Iowa Favors La Follette Above All Other Candidates

WEST UNION, Iowa, Nov. 8.—Sustaining the opinion expressed some time ago that sentiment in the Fourth congressional district was anti-Taft, in the ballot which has been conducted for the past two weeks by one of the local papers the result is as follows:

La Follette	91
Taft	30
Roosevelt	25
Cummins	21
Hughes	1

Total vote cast168

This contest is an expression of the leading men in all the townships of Fayette county. There was no influence of any kind brought upon a single voter. In talking the matter over a quite a number of the men said that they regarded the fight had resolved itself into a contest between Taft and La Follette. Between the two they were for the latter, according to this vote, three to one. It would be more just to Fayette county politicians to say that the vote indicated the anti-Taft sentiment rather than a positive La Follette sentiment. Could Cummins be the candidate in opposition to Taft, the vote would be still stronger as indicative of the progressive sentiment. Outside of Senator Cummins it appears from this poll no one would be so strong as La Follette. In this voting contest where all were compelled to sign their name to their vote, the first man to vote was L. Dutton, who is eighty-five years old and has voted in Fayette county for more than sixty years. Mr. Dutton is an enthusiastic La Follette man.

VERIFY RULING ON WHEAT MADE IN 1909

Following a request recently made by George M. Heath, manager of the Listman Milling company, Congressman John J. Esch yesterday received a ruling from the treasury department which allows the millers of the country a drawback of 99 per cent on Canadian wheat which is milled in this country.

Millers in Minneapolis state that the ruling received by Congressman Esch is a repetition of one similar in provisions which they obtained about two years ago.

FILMS TO FIGHT WHITE PLAGUE

Local Theater May Exhibit Pictures Showing Ravages of the Dread Disease

Secretary J. L. Utermoehl of the board of trade this morning received a letter from the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, telling him that they have moving pictures on tuberculosis and a stock lecture on the white plague, which can be exhibited in any city. The letter urged him to interest moving picture theatre managers in these pictures and lectures and to get them here if possible. Mr. Utermoehl announced that he would refer the matter to the local committee on tuberculosis, and find out their opinion on the subject.

The moving pictures, which are said to be excellent, are made by Thomas Edison, and the title of the film is "The Awakening of John Bond." It is said that they are very instructive in the war against tuberculosis and that wherever they have been shown that the public is well satisfied with them.

The lecture, says the letter, is one which can be given by anybody and one which tells a great deal about tuberculosis in all its phases. Twenty colored lantern slides accompany the lecture, and they help to illustrate and make plain what is being said.

Both the pictures and the lecture can and will be brought here if the local committee declares that they are in favor of having them here. The matter will be definitely decided upon soon.

STORY TELLING AT LIBRARY SUCCESS

A good attendance was on hand at the public library yesterday afternoon, when the story-telling season was opened by Miss Mary E. Forbes, assistant librarian, who told of the character of Ulysses as portrayed at the siege of Troy. This story will be continued by Miss Forbes next Tuesday.

Miss Nettie Sabelwitz will have charge of the story-telling hour tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and it is anticipated that many will come to hear her.

Next Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 Miss Mary E. Forbes will have charge of the hour for the children 9 years of age and over.

Miss Nellie McDonald will tell stories to the children at the Caledonia street branch of the library next Tuesday at 4 p. m., while the children of 9 years and over will hear Miss Forbes at 4:30.

CHURCH WON'T LET RICHESON RESIGN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 8.—While women cried and pleaded that nothing should be done to appear in any way prejudicial to his interests, members of the Immanuel Baptist church society, Monday night voted not to accept at this time the resignation of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of the church, now in jail on the charge of murdering Miss Avis Linnell.

They decided to lay the matter on the table until Nov. 24.

Even men wept during the controversy.

The vote was 30 against acceptance and 15 for.

Overworked Words.

"Strenuous" was a good word before it was overworked. So with "impeccable" until it became unbearable; also "banal," which is now banal and nothing else through threadbare usage. What superiority do these possess over the rural stock phrases of "in our midst," or "whilst going to Turkey Run last Thursday" or "all partook heartily of a bountiful repast?"—Washington Post.

Defective Education.

"There must be a bad way of teaching the elementary branches in this city."

"What makes you think that?"

"Because this election inquest shows that so many of the election officials can't count."

FAVOR MORE FOR SEWER EXTENSION

Council Committee Recommends that $110,000 Be Used in Order to Aid North Side

The sewers and special street improvements committees acted favorably on the resolutions which provided for an appropriation of $110,000 to install sewer extensions to the systems on the north side and in the southeastern part of the south side are almost completed, and they will report in favor of this at the council meeting on Friday.

To pay for the sewers south of Winnebago and east of Ninth street, which will cost $100,000, the sum of $20,000 will be taken from the sewer fund, city bonds will be issued for $35,000, while property owners will pay for the remainder.

When this resolution was introduced in the council by Alderman Torrance, Alderman Schneberger was against it vigorously and it was defeated. Mr. Schneberger withdrew his objections last night upon the condition that a clause be put in the ordinance to the effect that property owners be given their choice of paying for the sewers in ten yearly installments or of paying the entire amount when the work is done. The amendment was adopted and the report will be made with the new condition included.

The committee approved of the resolution introduced by Alderman Mahoney that most of the north side streets, where there are no sewers, should be provided. An expenditure of $12,000 is necessary for the work and there is provision made for $6,000 in bonds.

Alderman P. W. Mahoney's resolution that dealers in farm products be exempt from taxes which are imposed on transient dealers was approved of by the committee.

HOGS ROUT HUNTERS

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 8.—The herd of hogs owned by Edwin Williams, a farmer living just west of Iowa City, and which last summer would have eaten his daughter Anna alive had she not been timely rescued by farm hands, yesterday set upon a party of four hunters of Iowa City, chased their pointer dog beneath a pile of brushwood and devoured the animal alive. The hunters escaped only after an exciting chase across the hog lot. The hunting party included Fred Kriz, James Doleral, Tony McInteer and Phil Katzenmeyer.

Ivy at a Funeral.

Standing beside a coffin containing the body of her husband, Mrs. Charles Buhland of Indianapolis carried out his last requests. Dressed in white, she sang two hymns, read his requests and delivered a brief eulogy.

Buhland did not want any crepe at the door and he insisted that no black should be worn in mourning for him. He wanted his wife to dress in white. He desired that in the place of somber decorations there should be flowers and other symbols of joy at the funeral.

Buhland was 52 years old and was ill a year before he died.

Poor Day for Trade.

"Rainy day trade ain't what it was before that moving picture show started up next door," said the umbrella dealer sadly. "Used to be when people got caught in the rain they came in and bought umbrellas; now when they get caught and the barker for the show sees 'em heading for my door he says:

"Step right in till it stops raining. Costs you less to see the show than to buy an umbrella," and, by cricky, if that ain't what most of 'em do."

Name and address of this gentleman will be given to any one interested.

Sufficiently Permanent.

Mrs. Cameron was seventy-two years old, but she was so well-preserved that there seemed no reason to think that her days might not be lengthened to reach the family standard—over eighty-five.

When her trusty maid of all work fell ill, Mrs. Cameron, saying that she should pension the faithful Nancy, set about to obtain another. She advertised for a girl who wished a "permanent place," and offered high wages. The first applicant was a grim Scotch woman, who looked Mrs. Cameron over, and then spoke her mind.

"You're well-favored, ma'am," she said, "but you're fair old for a' that, an' I'm lookin' for a pairmanency."

"You stay here till after my funeral," said Mrs. Cameron, with an appreciative twinkle in her eye, "and see if it hasn't been pretty permanent."

"Aweel, I'll try it," said the woman, after another survey of her future mistress; and she held her "pairmanency" for fifteen years, at the end of which time she attended the funeral of her mistress, and after it learned that a goodly sum had been left to "my cautious Tina," on the receipt of which she retired from active service. —Youth's Companion.

stant. It certainly is a joke, but its setting (page 5, Leader-Press) was just the touch to give the humor of it a poignant turn. It is worthy of a more elaborate introduction, but we can't keep the dear reader in suspense any longer. Here we are:

"PERFECTLY INNOCENT"
"It has been established that you issued checks amounting to $156,000 to your lieutenants during the campaign," said a member of the investigating committee. "Haven't you any idea what was done with that money?"

"None whatever," replied the statesman who was being investigated.

"Didn't you require the men who got the money to render an accounting of any kind?"

"No, I was careful to avoid that. I made up my mind at the start that if any bribery or vote-buying was done I would remain perfectly innocent."

Please send marked copies to Isaac Stephenson, than whom none will better appreciate the fun. For "like" has a sense of humor that runs in a similar vein; remember his solemn statement to the senate committee, "I told the boys I wanted to win the election, but I wouldn't buy it." He gave "the boys" $107,000 with which to "win."

(3) Stephenson failed to file such a campaign expense account of his primary expenditures as the election laws require.

(4) Stephenson utterly failed to file a statement of the expenses of his legislative campaign, as required by the election laws.

Not only are these acts violations of the election law, but they are badges of fraud.

The acts of Stephenson's agents:

(1) M. C. Ring, an agent of Stephenson, paid Publisher Dee of Chippewa Falls, a sum of money to lend his paper to the support of Stephenson, although it had mildly opposed him.

This is a violation of the corrupt practices act.

(2) Edmonds, Stephenson's manager, gave Banker Stevens of Lancaster money and promised to make his bank a state repository if he would support Stephenson. Stevens had not been a partisan. He supported Stephenson and his bank was made a state repository.

This is a violation of the corrupt practices act.

(3) Agents of Stephenson paid Twesme, Bancroft and Wellingsgaard money. All three were candidates for the legislature, and all three spent the money during their personal campaigns.

Each of these gifts of money, so used, constitutes a violation of the corrupt practices act.

Now as to the effect of the corruption upon the election of Stephenson: He was elected by a majority of two votes. Reynolds, Twesme, Bancroft and Wellingsgaard, all four of whom spent Stephenson money in their campaigns for election to the legislature in violation of the corrupt practices act, and none of whom was therefore entitled to a seat or a vote in the legislature, all voted for Stephenson on the final ballot as a result of which he was declared elected. Eliminating their illegal and worthless votes, STEPHENSON WAS ACTUALLY TWO VOTES SHORT OF ELECTION.

This is most important part of the showing made by the evidence adduced at the Stephenson investigation. The summary shows four illegal acts affecting his election personally committed by Stephenson, and five illegal acts committed in his name by his agents. Four of these acts disqualified four assemblymen who voted for Stephenson, and without whose votes his so-called election could not have been accomplished.

What is the committee going to do with these facts?

What is the committee going to do with the further fact that, although Chairman Heyburn at the beginning positively announced the rule that it was incumbent upon Mr. Stephenson to prove that he spent none of the money he disbursed illegally, the senator not only failed to show that he did not spend the bulk of his $107,000 illegally, but was unable to refute positive evidence that he did spend much of it illegally?

"PERFECTLY INNOCENT"

You'll find it, "all home print," in the fifth page, third column, of the issue of the Leader-Press dated Nov. 7, 1911. It is entitled, "PERFECTLY INNOCENT," and a newspaper that got $600 of the Stephenson slush fund, and that has deposited itself in conformity with the conditions precedent to such gratuity, must have been "PERFECTLY INNOCENT" to permit anyone to slip the thing over on it.

It was ground out by some joke-smith, this curio of the seventh in-

The PRODIGAL JUDGE

The Famous Novel by
VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1911, The Bobbs-Merrill Company

Presently they heard Sherrod and Bunker come up from the shore with George. Slosson joined them, and there was a brief discussion, then an interval of silence, and the sound of voices again, and the three white men moved back across the field in the direction of the bayou. There succeeded a period of utter stillness, both in the cabin and in the clearing, a somber hush that plunged Betty yet deeper in despair. With thoughts assailed her, thoughts against which she struggled with all the strength of her will.

In that hour of stress Hannibal was sustained by his faith in the judge. He saw his patron's powerful and picturesque intelligence applied to solving the mystery of their disappearance from Belle Plain; it was inconceivable that this could prove otherwise than disastrous to Mr. Slosson, and he endeavored to share the confidence he was feeling with Betty, but there was something so forced and unnatural in the girl's voice and manner when she discussed his conjectures that he quickly fell into an awed silence. At last, and it must have been some time after midnight, troubled slumbers claimed him. No moment of forgetfulness came to Betty. She was waiting for what she did not know. The candle burnt lower and finally went out and she was left in darkness, but again she was conscious of sounds from the room below. At first it was only a word or a sentence, then the guarded speech became a steady monotone that ran deep into the night. Eventually this ceased and Betty fancied she heard sobs.

CHAPTER XXXI
Murrell Shows His Hand.

At length points of light began to show through chinks in the logs. Hannibal roused and sat up, rubbing his eyes with the backs of his hands.

"Wasn't you able to sleep none?" he inquired. Betty shook her head. He looked at her with an expression of troubled concern. "How soon do you reckon the judge will know?" he asked.

"Very soon now, dear," Hannibal was greatly consoled by this opinion.

"Miss Betty, he will love to find us."

"Hark! What was that?" for Betty had caught the distant splash of oars. Hannibal found a chink in the logs through which by dint of much squinting he secured a partial view of the bayou.

"They're fetching up a keel boat to the shore, Miss Betty—it's a whopper!" he announced. Betty's heart sank; she never doubted the purpose for which the boat was brought into the bayou, or that it nearly concerned herself.

Half an hour later Mrs. Hicks appeared with their breakfast. It was in vain that Betty attempted to engage her in conversation. Either she cherished some personal feeling of dislike for her prisoner, or else the situation in which she herself was placed had little to recommend it, even to her dull mind, and her dissatisfaction was expressed in her attitude toward the girl.

Betty passed the long hours of morning in dreary speculation concerning what was happening at Belle Plain. In the end she realized that the day could go by and her absence occasion no alarm. Steve might reasonably suppose George had driven her into Raleigh or to the Bownes and that she had kept the carriage. Finally all her hope centered on Judge Price. He would expect Hannibal during the morning; perhaps when the boy did not arrive he would be tempted to go out to Belle Plain to discover the reason of his non-appearance. She wondered what theories would offer themselves to his ingenious mind, for she sensed something of that indomitable energy which in the face of rebuffs and laughter carried him into the thick of every sensation.

At noon Mrs. Hicks, as sullen as in the morning, brought them their dinner. She had scarcely quitted the loft when a shrill whistle pierced the silence that hung above the clearing. It was twice repeated, and the two women were heard to go from the cabin. Perhaps half an hour elapsed, then a step became audible on the packed earth of the door-yard. Some one entered the room below and began to ascend the narrow stairs, and Betty's fingers closed convulsively about Hannibal's. This was neither Mrs. Hicks nor her daughter, nor Slosson with his clumsy shuffle. There was a brief pause when the landing was reached, but it was only momentary; a hand lifted the bar, the door was thrown open, and its space framed the figure of a man. It was John Murrell.

Standing there he regarded Betty in silence, not a deep-seated fire glowing in his sunken eyes. The sense of possession was raring through him, his temples throbbing, a fever stirred his blood. Love, such as it was, he undoubtedly felt for her, and even his giant project, with all its monstrous ramifications, was lost sight of for the moment. She was the inspiration for it all, the goal and reward for which he had struggled.

"Betty!" the single word fell softly from his lips. He stepped into the room, closing the door as he did so.

A Society Note

Dear Editor, an item:
My last, perhaps, this year. I'm keen enough to write 'em. But news is scanty here. Society's news fountains are growing very dry. There's nothing in the mountains. But silence, rocks and sky. Yet by the sumac torches. That on the hillside dance. Late gossips on the porches. Spy out one last romance. The beautiful Belle Summer. Who's flirted here since June. Has met a bold newcomer. And she'll surrender soon. For though by height or hollow. Seclusion she may seek. Rogue Jack is sure to follow. And feed upon her cheek. Rose-branded by his kisses. Her spinsterhood is lost. Miss Summer now is "Mrs." Her married name is Frost. —Tom Daily in Catholic Standard and Times.

Nothing to Write About

A new reporter on a western paper was assigned to go to a church meeting and get a story of it. He went. When he came back the city editor said:

"How did it pan out?"
"Oh," said the reporter, as he stuck his foot on the deck and lighted a cigarette, "there was nothing doing. I haven't got anything to write. The meeting broke up in a fight between the minister and a deacon—and not a bit of church business was done." —Saturday Evening Post.

Ready Permission

As an uptown manufacturer and his wife were motoring through the country in Bucks county, the wife saw an apple orchard, with several trees laden with bright red fruit. Her mouth watered for apples, and she induced her husband to stop the car and go into the orchard.

As he put his foot inside, he encountered a man. "May I have some apples?" he asked.

"Sure, help yourself," replied the other.

"How much will I owe you?"

"O, nothing, nothing at all. I don't own the orchard," said the man. —Philadelphia Times.

RED

It's the Red Blood Corpuscles that

Proper Food Makes

An Ohio woman says Grape-Nuts food gave her good red blood and restored the roses of youth to a complexion that had been muddy and blotchy. She says:

"For 10 years I had stomach trouble which produced a breaking out on my face. The doctors gave it a long Latin name, but their medicines failed to cure it. Along with this I had frequent headaches, nervousness and usually pain in my stomach after meals."

"I got disgusted with the drugs, stopped them and coffee and short and quit eating everything but fruit and Grape-Nuts, with Postum for my table beverage."

The headaches, stomach trouble, and nervous weakness disappeared almost like magic, which showed that when the cause was removed, and good food and drink was used nature was ready to help."

My blood was purified and my complexion became like a young girl's while my weight became increased from 90 to 120 pounds in a few months—good, solid, firm flesh, where it used to be soft and flabby."

"I recommended Grape-Nuts and Postum to one of my friends, who was afflicted as I had been. She followed my advice and in a short time was restored to complete health and in about 8 months her weight increased from 100 to 148 pounds."

"Our doctor, observing the effect of Grape-Nuts and Postum in our cases, declared, the other day, that he would hereafter prescribe these food products for gastritis." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter. A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Raising the Wind
"There ain't a dollar in the town treasury," said the mayor of Hillville to the town marshal, "and you will not get no salary this month."

"Never believe it," said the cheerful marshal. "There are six automobiles headed this way. Just make out the fines for exceedin' the speed limit an' leave the rest to me!" —Atlanta Constitution.

Not Guilty

The Medical Times reports the case of Rastus, who inquired of the "doctor," "What you tink is de matter with me?" Doctor, "Oh, nothing but the chickenpox, I guess." Rastus (getting nervous), "I 'clare on mah honoh, doctah, I ain't been no-whar I could ketch dat." —Buffalo Commercial.

The Audience Was Safe

Senator Swanson of Virginia tells a good story on himself about the first political speech he ever made. He says:

"I jumped up and began: 'Gentlemen, Herodotus tells us—Which ticket's he on?' yelling the man with the red shirt—Herodotus tells us, 'I resumed with a gulp, 'of a whole army that was put to flight by the braying of an ass.'"

"The crowd applauded and I felt fine. Then the man's voice rose above the din. 'You're feller,' he called, 'you needn't be afraid of this crowd. It's been tested.' —Buffalo Commercial.

The Wrong Spirit

Governor Hadley of Missouri, during the national conservation congress in Kansas City, was discussing at a luncheon certain forces that conservation has to fight.

"These men," he said, "show toward posterity, in their ruthless destruction of our natural resources, the spirit which animated old Jonathan Biggs, who was the owner of a valuable settler. His wife ran to him one day and cried:

"Oh, Jonathan, the settler has gone mad! He's envening and mowing, and whenever he sees water he stiffens up and foams at the mouth." "Quick, then," said old Jonathan Biggs, hurriedly, "quick then, wife, take him into town before he bites anybody, and—"

"Yes?" said Mrs. Biggs. "Yes?"

"And sell him!" blazed Jonathan. —New York Press.

Gov. Hughes' Comeback

Shortly after Governor Hughes of New York was elected the second time, after a bitter campaign, a lawyer from New York came to see him and was told to go to the executive mansion in Albany.

It was the first time the lawyer had ever been in the official residence of New York governors, and after Hughes came into the room, the visitor said:

"You have a handsome place here."

"Yes," Hughes replied, "but I had a hard time getting the landlord to renew the lease." —Saturday Evening Post.

Unfortunately Put

Suffragette—A man in the audience told our speaker that she properly belonged to the woman's auxiliary of the Audubon club. It made her furious.

Friend—Naturally—to be called a liar. The idea!

Suffragette—The idea, indeed! As if there couldn't be a Sapphira club. —Boston Transcript.

CARELESS ABOUT APPENDICITIS IN LA CROSSE

Many La Crosse people have stomach or bowel trouble which is likely to turn into appendicitis. If you have constipation, sour stomach, or gas on the stomach, try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-ika, the new German Appendicitis remedy.

Hoeschler Bros. state that A SINGLE DOSE of this simple remedy relieves bowel or stomach trouble almost INSTANTLY.

Sweetening Sour Dish Cloths

One trouble with dishcloths is that they are hard to keep sweet, but they can easily be kept in good condition by washing occasionally in lukewarm water to which has been added a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder; then scald, rinse and hang in the sunshine and fresh air to dry. Cheesecloth, unbleached cotton and heavy linen crash make most satisfactory dishcloths.

Where kitchen utensils become burnt or very "sticky," pot rings are easiest to use.

In the death of Mrs. D. S. McArthur, 1103 Main street, yesterday afternoon, La Crosse lost one of its most prominent club women. Mrs. McArthur is well known in the social world of La Crosse and has a host of friends not only in this city but also in a large number of the club circles throughout the state.

Mrs. McArthur's death was indirectly caused by a fall upon a slippery floor a few months ago. For some time after this her health declined until a few weeks ago when she seemed to have recovered from the effects. A few days later her condition became worse and it was found necessary to move her to the La Crosse hospital for treatment. She kept steadily declining until she finally died late yesterday afternoon.

During her residence in La Crosse Mrs. McArthur has been one of the most prominent club workers in La Crosse and has held several responsible positions with several of the leading organizations.

She was one of the charter members of the La Crosse Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution and was later elected as secretary of that society. She was one of the oldest members of the Twentieth Century club, having been the first vice-president and held the position of state auditor of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's clubs during the years of 1909 and 1910.

Born in the East Mrs. McArthur was born in North Adams, Mass., in 1861 where she lived with her parents until she was sixteen years of age when they moved to Melrose, Wis. Miss Eloise Johnson, was her maiden name.

Shortly after arriving at Melrose she entered the Wisconsin university where she graduated at the age of twenty. She married Daniel S. McArthur in 1885, and shortly after settled in La Crosse where she resided until the time of her death.

She is survived by three children, Helen, who is attending the Milwaukee Downer; Phillip attending the forestry at Munsing, Mich.; and Louise, who is attending the La Crosse high school, and her husband, Dr. D. S. McArthur. She is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. W. R. O'Hearn, Minneapolis; Mrs. L. L. Cadwell, Decorah, Iowa; and Miss Nell Johnson, Minneapolis.

Friends may view Mrs. McArthur at the residence at 1:30 Thursday. The funeral services will be held at Christ's Episcopal church, Main and Ninth streets at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

Do you think dentists would make pretty good backwoods farmers, just because they can grub out a good many achers in a day?

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved son and brother, John Henry Roggensack. Especially do we wish to thank Rev. Ingham for his words of comfort and sympathy and all who sent floral offerings.

Wives for Tobacco.

In the early settlement of Virginia, when the adventurers were principally unmarried men, it was deemed necessary to export such women as could be prevailed upon to quit England, as wives for the planters. A letter accompanying one of these matrimonial shipments, dated London, August 12, 1621, says:

"We send you in the ship one widow and eleven maids, as wives for the people of Virginia; there hath been especial care had in the choice of them, for there hath not one of them been received but upon good recommendations. There are nearly fifty more that are ready to come. For the reimbursing of charges, it is ordered that every man that marries them, give one hundred pounds of best leaf tobacco for each of them."

SOCIETY

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Jolly Jack o' Lantern Novelty club entertained at a Halloween party at the home of Miss Marjory Mackey at Onalaska in a most novel manner. The home was very prettily adorned with the usual Halloween decorations, jack o' lanterns and the fall bitter-sweet.

The refreshments were served in a very unique manner. Miss Mae Boyer presided over the punch bowl in the parlor; Mrs. E. L. Childs, the sherbet booth in the dining room, and Miss Anna Van de Water, the coffee in the lower hall. Popcorn was served in the basement, candy in the kitchen and apples in the dining room.

The fortune telling booth was in the upper hall, each guest finding their fortune tied in a peanut shell, which caused much merriment.

Each young lady was provided with a card bearing the instructions for a progressive lunch, partners being changed every fifteen minutes. After refreshments the usual Halloween games were indulged in until a late hour, when the guests departed with hearty thanks to the hostess for a good time.

The guests were Misses Fernie Aiken, Helen Merrill, Fannie Brunner, Margery Mackey, Mae Boyer, Edna Shove, Esther Ellis, Ida Davidson, Nellie Riehe, Hazel Travis, Cora Witz, Candace Erickson, Beatrice Brooks, Anna Van de Water, Frances Burroughs and Floyd Johnson; Messrs. Clayton Erickson, Harry Boyer, Royce Phelps, Theophilus Hodge, Wendell Todd, Edgar Hogan, Leslie Adams, Hobart Hodge, Bernard Nichols, Fred Christopherson, Donald Bucklin, George Brooks, Elmer Slette, Carroll Brooks, Edwin Berg and David Moore.

MEETS TODAY The Ladies' Aid society of the Norwegian Lutheran church, Sixth and Division streets, will be entertained in the church parlors Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. Meek, Mrs. M. Smevov and Mrs. A. Jensen.

SEWING CLUB The Tuesday Afternoon Sewing club was entertained yesterday by Mrs. Mont Nelson, 814 Winnebago street.

MISS LYDIA FLY ENTERTAINS Lydia Fly entertained at an oyster supper Saturday evening in honor of Frank Van Slyke, who is soon to leave for Oakland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Mathewson, Isabelle and Maud Van Loon, Carrie and Susan Olson, Millie Moe, Gus Kanard and Frank Van Slyke.

ENTERTAINS TONIGHT The Young People's society of the Norwegian Lutheran church, Sixth and Division streets, will be entertained this evening by Miss Emma Hanson, Miss Berna Sjelstad and Miss Bertha Amundson.

AFTERNOON COMPANIES Mrs. F. H. Burgess entertained a company of ladies at her home, 137 South Eleventh street, this afternoon. It was given in honor of two visiting ladies, Mrs. Krause of Bay Clay, who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Koppeler, and Mrs. C. J. McGurgen of Pittsburg, Pa., who is the guest of Mrs. John Elliott. Others present were Mesdames John Elliott, John Salzer, W. F. Hurlen, F. L. Koppeler, J. U. Hurlen, Henry Rooney, Ida Kaeppler, Ott, J. C. Safford and Miss Mae Williams.

Cards were played by some of the guests while others busied themselves with their fancy work.

Mrs. J. A. Elliott entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. C. J. McGurgen of Pittsburg. The guests were Mesdames McDonough, A. L. Grams, J. Felber, Paul Lutz, John Poehling, J. P. Hurlen, J. C. Safford and Miss Mary Klossheim.

TENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY A few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bartle of Main street pleasantly surprised them Monday evening, by being their tenth wedding anniversary. The hostess was presented with a handsome cut glass dish by her friends.

SOCIAL BRIEFS The members of the Coterie were entertained today at luncheon by Mrs. Van Steenwyk. Mrs. John Paul of Watertown, Fla., being the guest of honor.

Mrs. Harry Murphy, who was called here by the death of her father, Mr. C. A. Oiberg, left last Friday for her home at Fremont, Neb.

Miss Cora Binzel, teacher of domestic science in the La Crosse high school left last night for Milwaukee, where she will attend the teachers' convention which is being held there. Friday evening Miss Benzell will read a paper upon "Sanitation."

M. & J. ELECTS OLD DIRECTORS

Workmen's Compensation Case Discussed at Meeting at La Crosse Club Tuesday

John C. Burns, Carl Michel, J. W. Bryant, J. B. Funke and H. J. Hirschheimer, last year's directors of the Manufacturers' and Jobbers' union, were re-elected last night at a meeting held at the La Crosse club. Officers for the coming year will probably be elected by the directors some time this week.

As frequent complaints against the railroad rate question have been made by La Crosse shippers, Secretary C. W. Dickinson, in reading his report, advised that members of the club study this subject carefully.

Although no action was taken on the question, the members discussed the workmen's compensation act as passed by the last legislature, the opinion seemingly being that the law was unjust, it being argued that while some were benefited by it others suffered. It was asserted that 41 per cent of the men employed by the farmers are injured, therefore it is an injustice to these men. The club is waiting to see how tests of the law will come out, it being held that insurance rates increased to an alarming extent as a result of the enactment of the law.

The local association is entitled to three representatives at the National Business Men's congress to be held in Chicago in December, for which an invitation was read by Secretary Dickinson. No provision for sending delegates are included in the laws of the club so none were named.

WOODWARD HOLDS BACK RESIGNATION

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Upon the request of Governor McGovern, Warden Daniel Woodward of the state prison yesterday afternoon withheld his resignation as a member of the state board of control and will not present it, according to his present plan, until the next meeting of the board, in one month. The governor explained that he expects to leave on a hunting trip the last of this week and wants to be relieved of an expected deluge of applications for the coming vacancy, together with the importunities of friends and delegations of friends of candidates. Warden Woodward says fully a hundred candidates are in the field for the place on the board.

Governor McGovern will go to Ashland county to hunt deer. Others in the party will be his brother, Dr. J. J. McGovern, Dr. Gilbert E. Seaman and several other Milwaukeeans.

Home-Baked Bread.
The typical sanitary bakery is the home kitchen. Nothing will be said here as to "rots and spots" and second-grade flour and alum-bleach or the colored companionship of journeyman bakers and cellar rats at the corner shop.

Consider only the great brown household loaf, as Rabelais called it. Its crust has the rich hue of a country squire's cheek. Its crumb is as creamy as her neck. Its aroma as it comes crackling from the oven, if not the veritable soul of the wheat, is at least its aura. There is savor in homemade bread, and the meat on which our modern Caesars may grow gaudy.

All that our race is it owes to the old kitchen. Unless the pure food law is all wrong, the red flag flies from other roofs.—New York World.

HANDS WOULD CRACK OPEN AND BLEED
Blister Formed, Skin Scaled Off, and Flesh Burned and Itched Dreadfully. Healed by Less Than One Cake of Cuticura Soap and One Box of Cuticura Ointment.

"About two months ago my hands started to crack open and bleed, the skin would peel off, and the good flesh would burn and itch dreadfully. When my hands first started to get sore, there were small blisters like water blisters which formed. They itched dreadfully, it just seemed as though I could tear the skin all off. I would scratch them, and the skin would peel off, and the flesh would be all red and crack open and bleed. It worried me more with my skin. I was so afraid I would have to give up my employment."

"I consulted my doctor, and he said he didn't think it would amount to anything. But I kept getting worse. One day I saw a place in one of the papers about a lady who had the same trouble with her hands. She had used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was cured. I decided to try them, and my hands were all healed before I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I am truly thankful for the good results

"WOMAN'S HUNCH" USED BY DARROW

Wife of Socialist Leader

TO ASK CHANGE OF JUDGE

Defense Lawyers Willing to Go to Jail for Contempt to Force
Issue

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 8.— Probably not in the history of any great criminal case in recent years have conditions been so dramatic as when late yesterday Judge Bordwell, sitting in the McNamara trial,
ordered exercising of peremptories
to begin.

Each of the twelve men passed for cause was sitting bolt upright in his chair, each wearing a tense expression and watching with acute alertness the groups of lawyers at both tables engaged in earnest conference.
Fredricks challenged Frank Frakes and the defense quickly eliminated McKee; the state excused Mc-Neilly, the retired tailor, and union man, and the defense Johnson.

There was a pause of ten minutes for conference, and finally Darrow walked back and conferred with Mrs.
Frank Wolfe, wife of the biggest socialist leader in this city. It was the "woman's hunch," as she knew the members of the Winters family intimately. When Darrow resumed his seat he challenged Winter.

As exclusively stated by the United Press more than a week ago, the defense will next week renew its motion for a change of judge. Both McNamara will repeat their original affidavits and add this to the arguments of the court in refusing challenges against Talesman Frampton, guilty, but he believed McNamara guilty, but was willing to acquit if he were proved innocent, and Tales-man Winter, McKee and Case.

The defense lawyers are so worked up that they openly assert they are willing to go to jail for contempt if Bordwell forces the issue, so that they can get the supreme court of the United States to pass on the questions involved, which include the constitutional rights of a defendant.

Robert F. Bain, retired carpenter,
William F. Clark, retired undertaker, Byron Lisk, capitalist and stockholder in the Pasadena Milling company, F. D. Green, capitalist and rancher, progressive and original La Follette man in Los Angeles county.

These four men were certain to remain permanently in the McNamara jury when court reconvened today.

committee, to "Lexow" New York city again.

The republicans will be in complete control of the legislature, and Barnes will be in a position to carry out his threat. On a joint ballot the republicans will have 119 votes and the democrats 82. Last year the democrats had 117 and the republicans 84.

The socialist vote throughout New York state was surprisingly large, and for the first time a socialist assemblyman will be seen in Albany. He is H. H. Merritt of Schenectady.
The socialists likewise elected Lunn, their candidate for mayor of Schenectady, and are in complete control of affairs in that city.

That the democratic probe into affairs in Albany has not weakened
"Boss" Barnes' hold on affairs there was shown by the fact that his candidate, Mayor McGowan, was elected over Davis, democrat, by 4,000.

AD ELECTIONS AT TW-3 of -lized

Crookston Elects Socialist

CROOKSTON, Minn., Nov. 8.—By a majority of ninety-one votes H. L.
Larson, socialist, was elected mayor of Crookston, yesterday. George Christianson, also a socialist, was elected alderman of the Sixth ward and John Kolbe, socialist, is running neck and neck with Walter Stone for alderman at large.

Socialists Score Heavily
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 8.—A non-partisan ticket will manage Salt Lake City in its first term under the commission form of government, according to complete returns today.

Samuel C. Park, candidate for mayor, and the whole of the citizens' party ticket, was elected by a majority well over 4,000.

In the large cities of the state republican gains were reported, but in the smaller ones the democrats and socialists scored heavily.

Indiana Votes for Socialists

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—A gain of more than 50 per cent in the socialist vote of Indiana is indicated here today as a result of returns from four hundred incorporated towns in the state which elected officials yesterday.

Saginaw for Radicals

SAGINAW, Mich., Nov. 8.—The socialists in the election of twenty ward commissioners and three commissioners at large, yesterday showed remarkable strength, according to returns today. Three socialist ward commissioners were elected.

Virginia Election Time

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Featureless elections gave the democrats
a membership of 110 in the assembly of 140 members. Lynchburg yesterday's election became the first city in the state to have a compulsory education law. Senators Martin and Swanson will be re-elected.

Socialists are Strong

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 8.—Socialists here elected three city councilmen and came near defeating the republican mayoralty candidate.

Jaekel was named to interview the mayor with a petition asking that he immediately appoint a sealer of weights and measures, as provided by state law.

A resolution was passed providing that the city council be importuned to repeal that portion of the peddlers and hawkers' ordinance preventing the sale of potatoes in less than carload lots, thus permitting the consumer to buy in small quantities direct from the car, as well as the grocers.

A committee was named to work to overcome the local scarcity of potatoes, and the resulting high prices, by bringing in outside supplies. Secretary Taggart was instructed to begin correspondence with other villages and cities to locate a supply and cause them to be shipped to this city.

The aims of the program
The sum total of the enterprises planned yesterday is believed by leaders of the movement to promise an immense increase in the amount of business done in La Crosse, and to insure a decided reduction in the cost of food stuffs here.

It is argued that with the bridge
free, and with an independent buyer employed by the business men whose duty it shall be to buy only when the other buyers decline to pay the top price for farm products, farmers from both sides of the river
will hasten to again turn to La Crosse as their market, especially when there is offered the additional inducements of a warm rest room in which they can make coffee and enjoy luncheon or spend their spare time in comfort; warm stalls for their teams, and a market house with booths in which they can display meats, vegetables, etc., for retail sale to citizens and grocers alike.

The immediate appointment of a city sealer is urged because it is charged that citizens are being defrauded by false weights and measures, a thing the presence of a sealer would prevent.

The repeal of the carload-potato restriction of the peddlers' ordinance is promised as a cure for the maintenance of too high prices.

A Whirlwind Campaign

A whirlwind campaign is promised, and leading business men are confident that the plan will win in the referendum by a decisive majority.

Charles (Kid) Cutler of Chicago, heavyweight grappler, was no match
for Jess Reimer, the Des Moines strong man, in the match before 2, 600 people at the Coliseum last night, for he lost the last two falls.
Cutler won the first fall in twenty minutes, but Reimer threw him out in the second, with toe holds and won in 27 minutes. Reimer got the last fall in 23 minutes. Sandy Griswold of Omaha officiated.

COMMITTEES MEET

The claims committee and the committee on roads and bridges met at the county court house this morning and spent the day in going through the work of the last year. The roads committee are also discussing plans for road and bridge improvement during the coming year.
The claims committee are going through the claims against the county which have been submitted. The committee of the county board on finance will meet at the county court house at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CENSUS COTTON REPORT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—According to a crop report issued by the census bureau today 9,968,172 bales, counting round as half bales, were ginned from the growth of 1911 to November 1, as compared with 7,345,- 953 for 1910. Round bales included this year are 65,343, compared with 81,183 in 1910. Sea Island, 55,133 for 1911; 40,504 for 1910.

CONFEDERATE WOMEN MEET

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—When the annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met here today, Mrs. Darryl McLaurin Stevens of Mississippi, daughter of the late Senator McLaurin, was sprung as a new candidate in the race for the presidency. It was pre-

OLD RESIDENT IN LAST REST TODAY

Daniel Thayer, La Crosse
Pioneer, Dies at His Home; Prominent in Masonry

Daniel A. Thayer, aged 79 years, one of the pioneers of the lumber days in La Crosse and a well known figure on the river in the early days, died at 8:30 this morning at his home, 832 Caledonia street. Mr.
Thayer has been failing for some time, and for the last four weeks has been confined to his bed. His death was due to the infirmities of advancing age.

Daniel A. Thayer was born in Ken-nebuc county, Maine, August 5, 1832. In 1858 he migrated west and was captain on the river for five years. He then went to work for the P. S. Davidson Lumber company, as foreman with the firm at La Crosse and when the company moved to Oregon nine years ago he accompanied it and constructed a sawmill for that firm and remained in Oregon for four years.

He was also engaged in the lumber business in Iowa and after his return to La Crosse he sold out his interest in the Iowa firm and retired. He has made his home on the north side for fifty years and was one of the oldest settlers there. In 1864 he was married to Miss Mary Conley, a native of New York City.
He was a charter member of the Masonic lodge and is believed to have been the oldest member here. He was the father of nine children, two of which survive. They are Mrs. D.
P. Maitland, Jackson, Minn., and John Thayer, St. Paul.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 o'clock from the residence, 832 Caledonia street. The services will be under the auspices of the local Masons.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN THE GREAT JUDGE

Taft Pays Martyred President Tribute at Unveiling of Statue

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 8.—In his address dedicating the statue of Abraham Lincoln, in the capitol square here today, President Taft paid a high tribute to Lincoln's goodness of heart and keenness of mind.

"I don't think it is too much to say that Lincoln had the most judicial temperament of any man in history," said the president. "He considered the arguments of his opponents with all the fairness of John Stuart Mill, and though not like that mild philosopher, removed from the turmoils of life, but in the very center of the fray, he nevertheless preserved that calm judicial consideration of the views of everyone that became important, and in his disagreement with them, he left nothing more than the application of an apt story or a clear Euclid-like demonstration of error without sting."

which has made a number of trips to the canal zone, he is well qualified to speak on the subject, and the lecture should prove highly interesting. Views of the canal will be shown by Miss Bertha Shuman by means of a microscope. The lecture will begin at 7:45 and is open to both ladies and gentlemen.

ed almost entirely upon national issues.
On the other hand, the republican leaders pointed to republican gains in Massachusetts as the basis for a prediction that the Bay state would swing back to the republican column in the national election next year,
and found great joy in the republican victories in New Jersey and upstate New York.

Socialists Make Great Gains

The victories for Dan V. Stephens, democrat, elected to congress from Nebraska, and Joseph A. Taggart, democrat, from Kansas, were hailed by democrats as evidence of the sentiment in the middle west on national issues.

Great gains were scored everywhere by the socialists, who elected mayors in six Ohio cities; gained a sweeping victory in Schenectady, N.
Y., where a mayor and an assemblyman were elected, and cast more votes than the democrats in Bridgeport, Conn. The socialist leaders are more enthusiastic than they have been in years, and predict that in the national election the socialist vote will break all records.

The defeat of Governor Wilson's candidates in New Jersey was attributed here largely to the power of the organization headed by James Smith, Jr., who was defeated for the senate by Wilson's influence, and there was much speculation as to the effect the result will have on Wilson's presidential boom. The Harmon democrats were greatly encouraged and pointed out the comparative results in Ohio and New Jersey as indicating the relative strength of Harmon and Wilson.

The fight in Maryland, where the republicans elected P. L. Goldsborough governor, was largely on local issues. Virginia and other southern states where elections were held showed the usual democratic majorities.

Maryland Goes Republican

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—For the second time since the civil war Maryland has elected a republican governor.

With returns still incomplete, owing to the intricacies of the ballots,
it is estimated that Phillips Lee Goldsborough, republican candidate for governor, has defeated Arthur Pue Gorman, Jr., son of the late United States Senator Gorman, and democratic nominee, by a majority of about 5,000.

Democrat to Congress

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—
By a majority of about 1,000 Joseph Taggart, democrat, was today officially announced the choice for congress of the second Kansas district, nominally republican.

Socialists in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 8.—Election officials today reported that yesterday's poll in the gubernatorial election was exceptionally light but that Earl W. Brewer, democrat, had been elected with but little real opposition. James T. Lester, socialist, polled a heavy vote.

Socialist Vote is Doubled

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 8.—Socialist leaders today declare here that 100 per cent more socialist votes were cast yesterday than at the last election. Returns now indicate that 20,000 were polled in Allegheny county. Walter Tyler, socialist, is believed to have been elected mayor of New Castle, Pa., and a socialist county commissioner is said to have been elected in Venango county.

Lorimer Gang is Routed

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Both the old line political machines—the Roger Sullivan faction in the democratic party, and the Lorimer band in the republican ranks—were decisively put to rout in the city judicial elections, according to final returns today.

Of the ten superior court justices elected, six were republicans and a democrat was elected to the circuit court vacancy. Ten of the eleven judicial candidates elected were endorsed by the Chicago Bar association.

Good Governments Elect

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Practically complete returns from yesterday's elections today show that the good government party has elected sixteen of the eighteen members of the board of supervisors.

The only other election yesterday was at Sacramento, where Mayor M.
R. Beard, democrat, was re-elected over Allen Stuart, socialist, who, in turn ran ahead of the republican candidate.

Fusion Man Goes In

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.— Rudolph Blankenburg, fusion candidate of the Keystone-democratic parties, was elected mayor of Philadelphia over George H. Earle, Jr., republican candidate, by a plurality of about 3,000, according to the returns today. A great demonstration greeted the news.

The entire city Keystone-democratic ticket was elected.

"BOY BROKER" SENTENCED

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 8.—Robert E. Davie, the "boy broker," who fled to South America and was brought back here to face charges of embezzlement, pleaded guilty today and was sentenced to state's prison for five years. Davie's total larcenies, according to his creditors, aggregated between $300,000 and $500,- to prosecute, however.

DOCTORS ADVISED THE HOSPITAL

Mrs. Herberger, Who would Not Consent to Go There, Finally Relieved at Home.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Mrs. Mary Herberger, of this city, says: "I was sick in bed for ten weeks, with womanly troubles, and had four of the best doctors waiting on me. Every one of them said I would have to go to the hospital and have an operation, but I would not consent to that. I thought I would give Cardui a trial. When I began to take the first bottle, I could not turn over in bed, but had to be lifted. Before I finished the first bottle, my pains were leaving me, slowly, and soon I was out of bed and walking around. My pains have not come back, and I weigh 155 lbs. and feel fine. Cardui saved me from an operation. I am going to keep it in the house for I would not be without it." Cardui's strengthening effects quickly show themselves in many different ways. This is because the ingredients, from which it is made, go to the source of the trouble, and by acting specifically on the cause, relieve or cure and help bring back health and strength. In the past 50 years, more than a million women have been benefited by Cardui. Just try it. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

DIVIDING MILLIONS BY DRAWING OF LOTS

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 8.—The widow and four children of J. S. Polk, pioneer millionaire of Des Moines, who died a year ago, have divided the estate by lot, each receiving half a million. The executors have listed the moneys and credits, city blocks, farms and mining stock, and today it was announced that lists of this property at a carefully appraised value were placed in five envelopes, each containing half a million dollars worth of property. Then Mrs. Polk, the widow, held the envelopes and the four sons and daughters each drew an envelope and have decided to abide by the result.

Fitness.
"Do you think Mrs. Garish's fine plumage looks natural and proper to her style?" said the envious woman. "Surely so," replied the woman who is sarcastic. When she puts on one of those elegant ostrich feathers she looks like the original ostrich."

An Appeal to Wives

You know the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the result of a drinking husband or son. You know the money wasted on "drink" that is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing. Or, the man has saved thousands of drinking money. It is a home treatment and can be given secretly or taken voluntarily. Put up in two forms—powder or pill. Your money will be returned if after a trial it has failed to benefit. Comes out $1.00 a box—a mere trifle when compared with the amount a drinking man will spend in a day for liquor. Come in and get a free booklet and let us tell you of the good CARDUI is doing. O. T. Erhart, 518 Main street.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR FLORAL SHOW

Arrangement of Exhibits Is to Surpass Anything Seen Here; to Have Exhibit of Easter Lilies

Manager C. E. Schaefer of the La Crosse Floral company announced yesterday that he had completed his plans for the arrangement of the different exhibits of flowers in the big floral show that will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week in the Masonic temple, Eighth and Main streets. It is difficult to write a description of the plan, which must be seen to be appreciated, but Mr. Schaefer's enthusiastic description well describes it. He declares that the arrangement and size of the show will "eclipse for beauty of arrangement and color anything ever seen in La Crosse." It will surpass for size anything in the same line that has ever previously been attempted in La Crosse. The flowers will all be shown in groups, which will be arranged according to the types of the plants. The first day of the show, chrysanthemum day, will be remarkable for the number of varieties and types of chrysanthemums that will be shown. The large ball-like chrysanthemum is well known to the average lover of flowers, but there are several varieties of the single type that will be shown that will prove intensely interesting to the horticulturist. Mr. Schaefer declares that he is more than pleased with the way in which his chrysanthemums are progressing, and he declares that some of the varieties which at first he thought would not be in condition to show will be in their full beauty next Thursday. There will be literally thousands of plants exhibited each day of the show, and the exhibits will be changed daily. Show Easter Lilies One feature of the show which Mr. Schaefer has just recently decided to add is an exhibition of Easter lilies. The great number of plants of these wonderful blossoms which are growing at the green houses of the company are rapidly approaching maturity, and as they will be at their best just at the time of the show, Mr. Schaefer decided that it was worth while to place them on exhibition. They will be in a group by themselves, and will probably be placed on exhibition the first day of the show, together with the chrysanthemums. The artistic posters which the company has placed about town advertising the show have occasioned a great deal of comment. The posters are the work of a celebrated artist, and the original picture was prepared especially for the La Crosse Floral company. The company also has decided upon the moderate price of admission which will be charged. The fee for adults will be twenty-five cents, and for children in the grade schools ten cents. Each of the grade schools in the city will be presented with a large chrysanthemum plant the final day of the show.

PURDUE DRAWS THE COLOR LINE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 8.—The presence of a negro on the University of Iowa football eleven may cause the cancellation of the game to be played here Saturday with Purdue university, according to information here today. Alexander, the right tackle of the Iowa eleven, is the bone of contention and several members of the Purdue squad, who are from the south, have flatly refused to play if the negro goes in the game. An effort is being made by the authorities to straighten out the difficulty. Sugar was first discovered when Adam raised Cain.

OLD CRAFT TIES UP AT LA CROSSE

Minneapolis Man and Family, on Long Cruise to the Gulf, Land at Levee

A novel looking river craft tied up at the levee last night and is probably one of the first of its kind that has ever gone through this section of the country. The boat, which is a good sized launch, is owned and operated by S. G. Mooney of Minneapolis, who, with his wife and Joe Atloff, is cruising the Mississippi river and then down to Cuba. The boat left La Crosse at 7 o'clock this morning. The boat is of the trunk-cabin-cruiser variety and has a large fore-cabin in which the living apartments have been arranged. The boat itself is a thirty-five footer, propelled by a four cylinder engine and connected up with a dynamo providing electric light and automatic horn. This boat is not an unusual sight in the southern waters, as they are largely used in coast cruising, but its appearance in the upper waters is attractive to spectators. Caught on Dam Mr. Mooney left Minneapolis last Friday, and arrived in La Crosse last evening after having made a very successful trip so far, with the exception of one uninterrupted three hour stop at one of the dams above Alma. This was due to the fact that all the buoys on the river have been taken in, and the party was running at night at the time of the accident, but the mishap proved to be of no serious nature. The boat will make about twelve miles an hour and is rigged up in the modern way, having all of the necessary living appliances, such as kitchen, with all its facilities, fresh water supply, tank, ice box, etc., making it just as homelike as the living on land. The entire outfit was constructed and designed by the owner about a year ago, at which time it had been planned to make the trip, but on account of the extreme low water a year ago it was impossible to navigate with this boat on account of its heavy draught. The trip will be an interesting one, combining both pleasure and business, as Mr. Mooney is the owner of some land in Cuba, which he intends to take care of during the winter months.

HIGH SCHOOL LINK IN LIFE OF MAN

Superintendent Roseman of the university extension gave a short address to the students in assembly hall Tuesday morning. Mr. Roseman spoke of the value of a high school education, saying that high school period was the most important period of one's life. He termed it the connecting link between childhood and manhood and told of the advantages one with a high school education has over one who dropped from school early in life. Mr. Roseman made emphatic the value of each day and how one should make the best of the present day, quoting that "Today will soon be yesterday."

A Test of Tact.

James Bryce, the British Ambassador at Washington, is the most tactful of men, and at a luncheon at the Country club he once defined tact in these words: "Tact is the ability to remove the sting from a dangerous stinger without getting stung." If a cannibal would eat his sister, would a cow eat her fodder?

Ramage has returned from a visit at Lanark, Ill. William Pickett and Miss Emma Plozel were united in marriage Wednesday morning at the home of Father Dowling. They departed on the afternoon train for Nashua, Iowa, for a short stay with the groom's brother. Adam Erbe returned from Cedar Rapids Friday after a pleasant visit with his son Otto.

Woman's True Friend

Experimenting with new and untried medicines is foolish, and often dangerous. It would take a medicine more than forty years, to prove itself so universally good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During all that time it has been woman's favorite medicine—a restorative tonic, uplifting and invigorating the nervous and discouraged and giving them the final touch of perfect health.

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines for it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs—is not anything like advertised, secret, or patent medicines—does not claim to be able to do impossible things.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments, and adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper.

You can't afford to allow yourself to be over-persuaded into accepting any secret nostrum as a substitute for this honest square-deal non-secret medicine. Don't do it. No honest druggist will attempt to cheat you in this way. He who does should be rebuked and avoided. Doctors prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their worst cases because they know what it contains and know its ingredients to be of the very best.

It's well now and then to gently cleanse out bowel germs that breed weakness, cause foul breath, loss of appetite, dizziness and headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep bowels sweet and clean. Recommended by druggists because of their purity, goodness, and active gentleness.

WILL NOT STOP THE POST SEASON GAMES

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—In a letter to President Johnson of the American league, Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National commission, today repudiated the rumor that he is about to institute legislation prohibiting ball players from reporting post season games. "It's none of my business how they make their money after the season is over," says the letter.

STATE BOARD TO ACT ON PROTEST

Prof. McCormick Will Introduce Evidence of Chippewa Falls Game Before Commission Tonight

DECISION MAY AFFECT TITLE

La Crosse Will Be in Running for Championship; Claim the Time Was Cut

Word was received yesterday by Prof. McCormick from the state board of control of athletic affairs, that the protest of the Chippewa Falls game is being considered and that final action on it will be taken tonight by a committee meeting at the Plankinton Hotel in Milwaukee. Prof. McCormick and Prof. H. Kline left last night for Milwaukee with considerable evidence that will probably influence the committee to render a decision favorable to La Crosse.

At a meeting of the Boys' Athletic association yesterday afternoon, it was decided to give a dance the evening of the Madison football game. An invitation was extended to all members of the football team to come to the dance free of cost. Members of the association will be given rates to all high school dances in the future and will in all probabilities be given reduced rates to all future athletic events. This reduction to members is made with the hope that more boys will join the association. The society is planning a huge mass meeting for Friday evening, Nov. 17, in which the downtown streets will be paraded by the student body in gala attire, headed by a drum corps. The boys are intent upon having the crowd at the Madison game a record-breaking one and have already put tickets on sale.

DE ORO LEADS

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Champion Alfred De Oro is today nineteen points in the lead of George Wheeler, the Chicago professional, in the match for the Jordan-Lambert trophy of the world's three-cushion billiard championship.

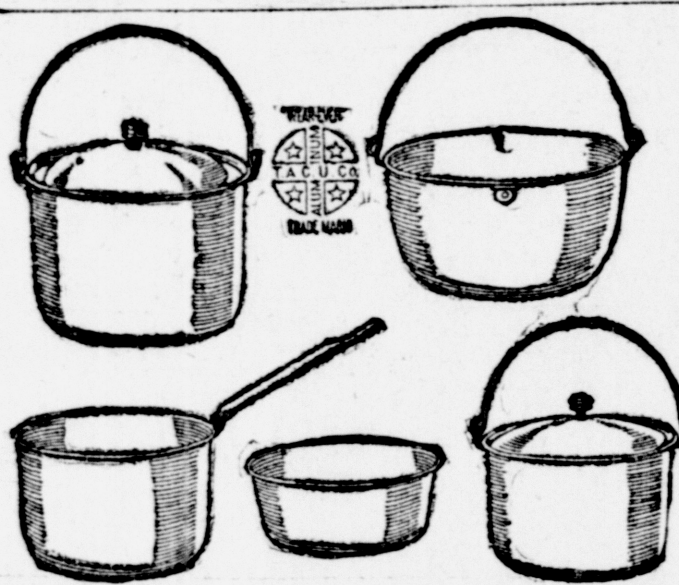

De Oro made his fifty points in seventy-four innings getting a high run of nine. His average was .649. Wheeler made thirty-one points, had a high run of 3, and averaged .419.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR HOME COMING

Thousands Will Attend the Alumni Home-coming at Madison; Championship Game Same Day

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—Alumni of the university of Wisconsin from every part of the state and county are expected to attend the first annual Wisconsin alumni homecoming, to be held in Madison Saturday, Nov. 18, the date of the Wisconsin-Minnesota game. Plans are being rapidly formulated by the athletic department of the university for making the homecoming one of the biggest alumni gatherings ever held at Wisconsin.

A committee composed of undergraduates and alumni from Madison Milwaukee and Chicago has been given charge of all arrangements, the alumni members being Louis P. Lochner, Edward M. McMahon and F. W. McKenzie. Kenneth Burgess is chairman and Edward C. Austin secretary of the committee.

The program of festivities for the entertainment of the "old grads" will open with a mass meeting for both students and alumni on Friday evening, Nov. 17, at which prominent alumni and former football stars will be speakers. Stephen S. Gregory of Chicago, president of the American Bar association, will probably be present.

At the football game on Saturday, a special section will be reserved for old "W" men. Between halves of the game an entertainment probably on the order of the Three-quarters club of Chicago initiation will be given for the special amusement of the alumni.

A smoker, together with several vaudeville acts to be put on by the dramatic club and other organizations on Saturday night will close the homecoming, and will be the most important part of the entertainment. Here reunion headquarters for classes, organizations and clubs will be opened, giving the graduates a chance to renew old ties.

Alumni headquarters will be maintained at the Wisconsin union, where the returning graduates can register and meet. Arrangements are being made to have rooms reserved for all alumni who desire accommodations during their stay in order that every old grad may be properly cared for.

SECOND DAY'S RACE BROUGHT TO CLOSE

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Eddie Root of Boston, brought the second day of the six-day bicycle race at the Seventy-fourth regiment armory to a close early today in a desperate sprint, reeling off the last mile in 2:09. Freddy Hill of Boston was second, and Menus Bedell, Long Island, third. Score end second day. 16th hour: Root-Fogler, 370; Clarke-Hill, 370; Bedell-Bedell, 370; De Mara-Lawrence, 370; Palmer-Stein, 370; Jokus-Jones, 370; Drobach-Pye, 370; Wells-Collins, 370; Carslake-Ryan, 369-8.

Suit is brought against the poultry trust. An attempt will be made to prohibit any one hen from hatching out more than fifteen chickens during a season.

DUCKS TO BLAME FOR POOR WORK

Badger Star Goes Duck Hunting on Morning of Big Game; Richards Gets Peeved

MADISON, Nov. 8.—Coach Richards is much incensed at one of his most powerful backfield stars who is said to have gone duck hunting at 2:30 o'clock on the morning of the Iowa game. As a consequence, it is said, he was unable to see the ball at critical moments in the play and did not do himself justice. There is going to be a decided tightening up on the discipline in the Badger squad from now on.

Coaches and students are optimistic over the prospects of the Minnesota battle, and believe the Badgers can hold the Gophers, if not defeat them by a small margin. Few bets are being placed on Minnesota among the students.

Using the "ghost ball" for the first time this season, in the waning daylight yesterday the Wisconsin varsity tried out Minnesota plays with a fair degree of success. Some of the varsity stars were used against the scrubs in impersonating Rosenwald, Stevens, Capron and others of the feared Gophers in a short skirmish. The practice was secret. Signal work was continued last night in the gymnasium.

NORMAL TO MEET RIVER FALLS SOON

Local Aggregation Ready for Clash with Rivals Saturday; All in Condition

Interest at the normal this week centers upon the approaching football game with River Falls normal. This game will close the season for the local normal team. They are hoping to finish with a victory. Last night and tonight the men were out early and worked long. After their three days of rest the men exhibited an encouraging degree of spirit and dash.

Some changes in the lineup may be made as it seems to be the policy of the coach to build a strong defense against River Falls. Lawton is working at left end and Tom McGlynn is at left guard. Dickinson is learning to carry the ball from right half.

To strengthen the team in the punting game Hyde and Lawton are being sent down under Captain Byer's punts.

This afternoon the boys went to the high school grounds for a practice scrimmage.

Her Habit.
"I don't like the woman you made me take out to supper. She has such a way of pinning you down."
"That's merely a force of habit with her. She's a dressmaker."

But even so, when a man commits a crime he creates a year's work for half a dozen detectives; so he is doing some good in the world.

MINNY LEAGUE MEETING TODAY

Force Will Not Be Up for Re-election; May Result in Dropping of La Crosse

That President Frank Force of the Minny league is not a candidate for re-election is the announcement made by Force today. Lee Bierce, Winona, was favorably mentioned for the position at the opening of the meeting of the presidents of the clubs of the Minny league which is now being held in Minneapolis. The election will be held late this afternoon.

President John Elliott, previous to his leaving for Minneapolis last night, declared that today's meeting will be one of the greatest in the history of the organization and may result in the organization of an entirely different circuit.

A petition will be drawn up which will be presented at the annual meeting of the magnates of the American association in December requesting their permission to enter the Twin cities.

The matter of dropping Rochester from the league will be discussed and La Crosse and Eau Claire may also be dropped today.

BAN JOHNSON IS STARTING TROUBLE

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—That President Ban B. Johnson of the American league is planning to raise "Hob" at the meeting of the National Baseball commission, in Cincinnati, tomorrow, is indicated by his statement, issued today, regarding the alleged ticket scalping in New York during the world's series.

"If Brush wants proof I'll furnish it," said Johnson today. "I am positive the National commission will provide a remedy that will make ticket scalping impossible in the future."

Suspicion.
"Didn't your queer friend tell you he had taken a degree in several degrees?"
"Yes."
"Then I'll bet it was the third degree."

EXPERT ACCOUNTANT OVERCOME BY LIQUOR

Occasional Drink Led to Unconquerable Habit--Sought Neal Treatment for Relief--Read His Letter.

There goes a "boozer." This is not the kindest expression in the world to hear addressed to oneself, but it was truthfully directed at me, until I pulled myself together and accepted an invitation to test the efficacy of The Neal three day cure.

At first I scoffed at the thought and boasted of my ability to "take a glass of beer or let it alone." I had successfully demonstrated my ability to take a glass, several of them, but when it came to letting it alone, I was counted out. I became a physical wreck, was lost to all sense of shame, neglected my business, rolled home drunk, beastly drunk in broad daylight, the butt of the small boy's jokes and the eyecore of the neighborhood, where once I was a respected resident.

When I believed myself to be navigating successfully while in my cups, I was being exhibited, by myself, in a most degrading role.

It was not until my hand had been stayed from committing a crime that might have cost me life itself that I listened to the voice that guided me in the right direction. I agreed to try the cure, and both the treatment and myself made good.

Three short days sufficed for my complete reformation, and since I emerged from The Neal Institute fully cured, I swear I have had no desire to return to the swill tub of the degenerate.

I am happy in the center of my family, and my reason tells me they are happy in me.

I have had 10 years at least added to my life, and today I am doing double the work I performed before I had occasion to take the Neal cure for the liquor habit.

Yours gratefully,
Name and address of this gentleman will be given to any one interested.

This is the experience of one man, a man well known in the business world. His experience is but a repetition of hundreds of others who have taken the cure.

While it is a rule of the institute not to make the names of patients public, but to hold them in the strictest confidence, this man wishes his cure made known.

What the Neal cure did for him it can do for any other man or woman who drinks to excess. Three days' time at the Neal institute is all that is required to completely cure any one of the habit of drink and the pleasant homelike surroundings make those few short days a period of happiness and rest.

Many drinkers think to quit but a matter of will power. This is not so, for the poisons within the system overcome all good intentions. What must be had is an antidote. This the Neal Cure supplies. No hypodermic injections are used. Just small doses of liquid, pleasant to take, are administered. There is no struggle, no suffering to undergo, and nothing that is in any way disagreeable. The treatment destroys the desire for drink by neutralizing the poisons that cause the craving, and in three days' time a cure is effected.

The patient leaves the institute freed from the habit, with a clear brain and master of himself. There are no failures; all are cured. This is guaranteed, so there is no chance for failure.

If you are a drinker of strong drink, or if you have a friend, a father, a brother, a mother, a sister, a husband, or a wife, who is, send them to this home of salvation and help them to do what they can't do themselves.

Don't put it off another day. Call in person, write or telephone The Neal Institute, 444 Cass Street, telephone Main 2726, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

John Thayer was called to Retreat by the illness of his mother.

Miss Norma Battles and Lena Espeseth of Bloomingdale spent two days here.

Mrs. Wm. Stogdil and small son returned from La Crosse to spend a day, they went back, owing to the illness of a sister.

Albert Thompson of Coon Valley, was in the city.

Berlie Moore and son, Winston, spent a few days on the Moore farm at Ross.

Miss Belva Olson of Westby, was a guest of friends.

Assemblyman Grimsrud of Westby, was in the city on business.

W. L. Goodman of Genoa, was in the city with four giant apples which were about all he could carry. The largest measured sixteen inches in circumference, but he had one at home which was two inches larger. They grew on a Missouri apple tree, and he tried the experiment of taking all but a very few apples from the tree, and letting the others grow as large as they would.

The Coon Valley Herald is being published by the Coon Valley Publishing company.

J. W. Thayer went to Milwaukee on business.

her home at Coon Valley on a count of illness.

Worked Two Ways.

He had sung several times during the evening, and his friends had murmured words of praise, then escaped as quickly as possible.

But as he was going homeward he managed to catch one of these self-same friends, and he insisted on a truthful opinion.

"You see," he explained, "I don't quite know how to take Miss Cuteon's comment on my performances to-night."

"No—really! Why—what did she say?" asked the friend hopefully.

"Well, she said she'd heard Caruso several times and thought his voice was excellent, but she was quite certain that mine was better still."—New York Mail.
